- 6.3 The Company purchases, redeems or otherwise acquires the Shares pursuant to a right of a Member to have his Shares redeemed or to have his Shares exchanged for money or other property of the Company, or

- 8.4 The director convening a meeting of Members may fix as the record date for determining those Members that are entitled to vote at the meeting the date notice is given of the meeting, or such other date as may be specified in the notice, being a date not earlier than the date of the notice.
- 8.5 A meeting of Members held in contravention of the requirement to give notice is valid if Members holding at least 90 per cent of the total voting rights on all the matters to be considered at the meeting have waived notice of the meeting and, for this purpose, the presence of a Member at the meeting shall constitute waiver in relation to all the Shares which that Member holds.
- 8.6 The inadvertent failure of a director who convenes a meeting to give notice of a meeting to a Member or another director, or the fact that a Member or another director has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

- 8.7 A Member may be represented at a meeting of Members by a proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of the Member.
- 8.8 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be produced at the place designated for the meeting before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.
- 8.9 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in substantially the following form or such other form as the chairman of the meeting shall accept as properly evidencing the wishes of the Member appointing the proxy.

- 8.10 The following applies where Shares are jointly owned
- (a) if two or more persons hold Shares jointly each of them may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of Members and may speak as a Member;
  - (b) if only one of the joint owners is present in person or by proxy he may vote on behalf of all joint owners; and
  - (c) if two or more of the joint owners are present in person or by proxy they must vote as one and in the event of disagreement between any of the joint owners of Shares then the vote of the joint owner whose name appears first (or earliest) in the register of members in respect of the relevant Shares shall be recorded as the vote attributable to the Shares.
- 8.11 A Member shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of Members if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Members participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
- 8.12 A meeting of Members is duly constituted if, at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person or by proxy not less than 50 per cent of the votes of the Shares entitled to vote on Resolutions of Members to be considered at the meeting. If the Company has two or more classes of Shares, a meeting may be quorate for some purposes and not for others. A quorum may comprise a single Member or proxy and then such person may pass a Resolution of Members and a certificate signed by such person accompanied where such person holds a proxy by a copy of the proxy instrument shall constitute a valid Resolution of Members.

- 8.13 If within two hours from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the next business day in the jurisdiction in which the meeting was to have been held at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting there are present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person or by proxy not less than one third of the votes of the Shares or each class or series of Shares entitled to vote on the matters to be considered by the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved.

- 8.15 The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place.
- 8.16 At any meeting of the Members the chairman is responsible for deciding in such manner as he considers appropriate whether any resolution proposed has been carried or not and the result of his decision shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If the chairman has any doubt as to the outcome of the vote on a proposed resolution, he shall cause a poll to be taken of all votes cast upon such resolution. If the chairman fails to take a poll then any Member present in person or by proxy who disputes the announcement by the chairman of the result of any vote may immediately following such announcement demand that a poll be taken and the chairman shall cause a poll to be taken. If a poll is taken at any meeting, the result shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 8.17 Subject to the specific provisions contained in this Regulation for the appointment of representatives of Members other than individuals the right of any individual to speak for or represent a Member shall be determined by the law of the jurisdiction where, and by the documents by which, the Member is constituted or derives its existence. In case of doubt, the directors may in good faith seek legal advice and unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise rule, the directors may rely and act upon such advice without incurring any liability to any Member or the Company.

- 8.18 Any Member other than an individual may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such individual as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of Members or of any class of Members, and the individual so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights on behalf of the Member which he represents as that Member could exercise if it were an individual.
- 8.19 The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy or on behalf of any Member other than an individual may at the meeting but not thereafter call for a notarially certified copy of such proxy or authority which shall be produced within 7 days of being so requested or the votes cast by such proxy or on behalf of such Member shall be disregarded.
- 8.20 Directors of the Company may attend and speak at any meeting of Members and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class or series of Shares.
- 8.21 An action that may be taken by the Members at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Members consented to in writing, without the need for any prior notice. If any Resolution of Members is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Members, a copy of such resolution shall forthwith be sent to all Members not consenting to such resolution. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Members. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which Eligible Persons holding a sufficient number of votes of Shares to constitute a Resolution of Members have consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

written resolution passed by a least seventy five per cent of the Members of the Company entitled to vote; or

(b) a Resolution of Directors passed at a meeting of directors.

9.6 A director may resign his office by giving written notice of his resignation to the Company and the resignation has effect from the date the notice is received by the Company at the office of its registered agent or from such later date as may be specified in the notice. A director shall resign forthwith as a director if he is, or becomes, disqualified from acting as a director under the Act.

9.7 The directors may at any time appoint any person to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors. Where the directors appoint a person as director to fill a vacancy, the term shall not exceed the term that remained when the person who has ceased to be a director ceased to hold office.

9.8 A vacancy in relation to directors occurs if a director dies or otherwise ceases to hold office prior to the expiration of his term of office.

9.9 The Company shall keep a register of directors containing

- (a) the names and addresses of the persons who are directors of the Company;
- (b) the date on which each person whose name is entered in the register was appointed as a director of the Company;
- (c) the date on which each person named as a director ceased to be a director of the Company; and
- (d) such other information as may be prescribed by the Act.

9.10 The register of directors may be kept in any such form as the directors may approve, but if it is in magnetic, electronic or other data storage form, the Company must be able to produce legible evidence of its contents. Until a Resolution of Directors determining otherwise is passed, the magnetic, electronic or other data storage shall be the original register of directors.

9.11 The directors may, by a Resolution of Directors, fix the emoluments of directors with respect to services to be rendered in any capacity to the Company.

9.12 A director is not required to hold a Share as a qualification to office.

10 Powers of directors

10.1 The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of, the directors of the Company. The directors of the Company have all the powers necessary for managing, and for directing and supervising, the business and affairs of the Company. The directors may pay all expenses incurred preliminary to and in connection with the incorporation of the Company and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act or by the Memorandum or the Articles required to be exercised by the Members.

- 10.2 If the Company is the wholly owned subsidiary of a holding company, a director of the Company may, when exercising powers or performing duties as a director, act in a manner which he believes is in the best interests of the holding company even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company.
- 10.3 If the Company is a subsidiary, but not a wholly owned subsidiary, of a holding company, and the shareholders other than the holding company agree in advance, a director of the Company may, when exercising powers or performing duties as a director in connection with the carrying out of the joint venture, act in a manner which he believes is in the best interests of a Member or some Members even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company.
- 10.4 If the Company is carrying out a joint venture between shareholders, a director of the Company may, when exercising powers or performing duties as a director, act in a manner which he believes is in the best interests of the holding company even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company.
- 10.5 Each director shall exercise his powers for a proper purpose and shall not act or agree to the Company acting in a manner that contravenes the Memorandum, the Articles or the Act. Each director, in exercising his powers or performing his duties, shall act honestly and in good faith in what the director believes to be the best interests of the Company.
- 10.6 Any director which is a body corporate may appoint any individual as its duly authorised representative for the purpose of representing it at meetings of the directors, with respect to the signing of consents or otherwise.
- 10.7 The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.
- 10.8 The directors may by Resolution of Directors exercise all the powers of the Company to incur indebtedness, liabilities or obligations and to secure indebtedness, liabilities or obligations whether of the Company or of any third party.
- 10.9 All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by Resolution of Directors.
- 10.10 Section 175 of the Act shall not apply to the Company.

11 Proceedings of directors

- 11.1 Any one director of the Company may call a meeting of the directors by sending a written notice to each other directors.
- 11.2 The directors of the Company or any committee thereof may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the notice calling the meeting provides.
- 11.3 A director is deemed to be present at a meeting of directors if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all directors participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
- 11.4 A director shall be given not less than 3 days' notice of meetings of directors, but a meeting of directors held without 3 days' notice having been given to all directors shall be valid if all the directors entitled to vote at the meeting who do not attend waive notice of the meeting, and for this purpose the presence of a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver by that director. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a director, or the fact that a director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.
- 11.5 A meeting of directors is duly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are present in person or by alternate not less than one-half of the total number of directors, unless there are only 2 directors in which case the quorum is 2.
- 11.6 A director may by a written instrument appoint an alternate who need not be a director and the alternate shall be entitled to attend meetings in the absence of the director who appointed him and to vote or consent in place of the director until the appointment lapses or is terminated.
- 11.7 If the Company has only one director the provisions herein contained for meetings of directors do not apply and such sole director has full power to represent and act for the Company in all matters as are not by the Act, the Memorandum or the Articles required to be exercised by the Members. In lieu of minutes of a meeting the sole director shall record in writing and sign a note or memorandum of all matters requiring a Resolution of Directors. Such a note or memorandum constitutes sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.
- 11.8 At meetings of directors at which the Chairman of the Board is present, he shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman of the Board or if the Chairman of the Board is not present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If the directors are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the oldest individual Director present (and for this purpose an alternate director shall be deemed to be the same age as the director that he represents) shall take the chair.
- 11.9 An action that may be taken by the directors or a committee of directors at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Directors or a resolution of a committee of directors consented to in writing by all directors or by all members of the committee, as the case may be, without the need for any notice. The consent may be in the form of counterparts each counterpart being signed by one or more directors. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the date upon which the last director has consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

12 Committees

12.1 The directors may, by Resolution of Directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of one or more directors, and delegate one or more of their powers, including the power to affix the Seal, to the committee.

12.2 The directors have no power to delegate to a committee of directors any of the following powers:

- (a) to amend the Memorandum or the Articles;
- (b) to designate committees of directors;
- (c) to delegate powers to a committee of directors;
- (d) to appoint directors;
- (e) to appoint an agent;
- (f) to approve a plan of merger, consolidation or arrangement; or
- (g) to make a declaration of solvency or to approve a liquidation plan.

12.3 Regulations 12.2(b) and 12.2(c) do not prevent a committee of directors, where authorised by the Resolution of Directors appointing such committee or by a subsequent Resolution of Directors, from appointing a sub-committee and delegating powers exercisable by the committee to the sub-committee.

12.4 The meetings and proceedings of each committee of directors consisting of 2 or more directors shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of the Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as the same are not superseded by any provisions in the Resolution of Directors establishing the committee.

13 Officers and agents

13.1 The Company may by Resolution of Directors appoint officers of the Company at such times as may be considered necessary or expedient. Such officers may consist of a Chairman of the Board of Directors, a Chief Executive Officer, one or more vice-presidents, secretaries and treasurers and such other officers as may from time to time be considered necessary or expedient. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.

- 13.2 The officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed at the time of their appointment subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed thereafter by Resolution of Directors. In the absence of any specific prescription of duties it shall be the responsibility of the Chairman of the Board to preside at meetings of directors and Members, the Chief Executive Officer to manage the day to day affairs of the Company, the vice-presidents to act in order of seniority in the absence of the Chief Executive Officer but otherwise to perform such duties as may be delegated to them by the Chief Executive Officer, the secretaries to maintain the register of members, minute books and records (other than financial records) of the Company and to ensure compliance with all procedural requirements imposed on the Company by applicable law, and the treasurer to be responsible for the financial affairs of the Company.
- 13.3 The emoluments of all officers shall be fixed by Resolution of Directors.
- 13.4 The officers of the Company shall hold office until their death, resignation or removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by Resolution of Directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by Resolution of Directors.
- 13.5 The directors may, by a Resolution of Directors, appoint any person, including a person who is a director, to be an agent of the Company. An agent of the Company shall have such powers and authority of the directors, including the power and authority to affix the Seal, as are set forth in the Articles or in the Resolution of Directors appointing the agent, except that no agent has any power or authority with respect to the matters specified in Regulation 12.1. The Resolution of Directors appointing an agent may authorize the agent to appoint one or more substitutes or delegates to exercise some or all of the powers conferred on the agent by the Company. The directors may remove an agent appointed by the Company and may revoke or vary a power conferred on him.
- 14 Conflict of Interests
- 14.1 A director of the Company shall, forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to all other directors of the Company.
- 14.2 For the purposes of Regulation 14.1, a disclosure to all other directors to the effect that a director is a Member, director or officer of another named entity or has a fiduciary relationship with respect to the entity or a named individual and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may, after the date of the entry or disclosure, be entered into with that entity or individual, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction.
- 14.3 A director of the Company who is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company may:
- (a) vote on a matter relating to the transaction;

- (b) attend a meeting of directors at which a matter relating to the transaction arises and be included among the directors present at the meeting for the purposes of a quorum; and
- (c) sign a document on behalf of the Company, or do any other thing in his capacity as a director, that relates to the transaction, and, subject to compliance with the Act shall not, by reason of his office be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from such transaction and no such transaction shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

15 Indemnification

15.1 Subject to the limitations hereinafter provided the Company shall indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings any person who:

- (a) is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director of the Company; or
- (b) is or was, at the request of the Company, serving as a director of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

15.2 The indemnity in Regulation 15.1 only applies if the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of criminal proceedings, the person had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

15.3 The decision of the directors as to whether the person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company and as to whether the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful is, in the absence of fraud, sufficient for the purposes of the Articles, unless a question of law is involved.

15.4 The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi does not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

15.5 The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any person who is or was a director, officer or liquidator of the Company, or who at the request of the Company is or was serving as a director, officer or liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in that capacity, whether or not the Company has or would have had the power to indemnify the person against the liability as provided in the Articles.

The directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal and for an imprint thereof to be kept at the registered office. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein the Seal when affixed to any written instrument shall be witnessed and attested to by the signature of any one director or other person so authorised from time to time by Resolution of Directors. Such authorisation may be before or after the Seal is affixed, may be general or specific and may refer to any number of sealings. The directors may provide for a facsimile of the Seal and of the signature of any director or authorised person which may be reproduced by printing or other means on any instrument and it shall have the same force and validity as if the Seal had been affixed to such instrument and the same had been attested to as hereinbefore described.

9.1.2 If any vote or consent of the Members is required by the Act at a time when there is only one Member, then the vote of such Member shall be considered the vote or consent of the Members. If there is more than one Member, then, unless a greater majority is required by the Act or this Agreement, the vote of Members holding a majority of the Membership Interests in the Company shall be considered the vote or consent of the Members. Any action of the Members may be taken by written consent without a meeting and without prior notice.

9.2 In addition to the powers granted by law, the Members shall have full power to do everything in administering the Company that the Members may deem advisable, to the full extent that an individual owning property would have and without prior court authority, including the power: To retain so long as the Members may deem advisable and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, any kind of real property or personal property; to sell for cash or on credit (at public or private sale), exchange, mortgage, lease for any period (either as landlord or tenant and including renewals of the term) and modify, extend or cancel leases, grant options or otherwise dispose of or deal with any real or personal property, all without regard to statutory restrictions, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as they deem advisable without first obtaining a court order; to erect, renovate or alter buildings or otherwise improve and manage buildings and property; demolish buildings; make ordinary and extraordinary repairs; grant easements and make party wall contracts; dedicate roads; subdivide; adjust boundary lines and partition; to distribute in kind or in money or partly in each, even if shares be composed differently; to hold property in the names of nominees or so that it will pass on delivery; to renew, assign, alter, extend, compromise, abandon or release or arbitrate claims asserted by or against the Company; to engage and rely on brokers and investment counsel, accountants, appraisers and other experts and legal counsel and to compensate them; to employ custodians of the assets and bookkeepers and clerks and other assistants; and to borrow money for any purpose.

9.3 Officers. The Members may, from time to time as they deem advisable, select one or more natural persons and designate them as officers of the Company (the "Officers") and assign titles (including, without limitation, President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer) to any such person. The Members may, by written instrument, delegate to any Officer or any other agent of the Company any of the Members' powers under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the power to bind the Company. Any delegation pursuant to this Section 9.3 may be revoked at any time by the Members. An Officer may be removed with or without cause by the Members. Any Officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Members. Any vacancy in any office, due to death, incapacity, resignation or removal, shall be filled by the Members. Officers may be Members or non-Members.

9.4 Fiduciary Duty of the Members and Officers. In exercising the powers granted by this Agreement and in performing the duties required by this Agreement with respect to the management and operation of the Company, each Member and Officer, pursuant to general principles of law, has a fiduciary duty to act reasonably in (or not opposed to) the best interests of the Company and the Members.

10. Other Business. The Members and any person or entity affiliated with any of the Members may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures (unconnected with the Company) of every kind and description, independently or with others. None of the Company or the other Members shall have any rights in or to such independent ventures or the income or profits therefrom by virtue of this Agreement.

11. Liability and Indemnity.

11.1 To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Member, Officer, employee or agent of the Company ("Covered Person") shall be liable to the Company, any Member or any other person or entity who is a party to or otherwise bound by this Agreement for any liability, loss, damage or claim suffered or incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any such liability, loss, damage, cost or claim suffered or incurred by reason of such Covered Person's (a) gross negligence or willful misconduct, (b) violation of any express provision of this Agreement or of the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and/or (c) breach of such Covered Person's duty of loyalty ("Unprotected Acts and Omissions"). Consistent with the preceding sentence, each Covered Person may act or refrain from acting without liability to the Company or to any Member in reliance upon any opinion of any consultant or advisor on any matter which the Covered Person reasonably believes to be within the consultant or advisor's professional competence.

11.2 To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and to the extent of its assets, the Company shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless any Covered Person for any liability, loss, damage, cost or claim suffered or incurred by such Covered Person by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in connection with the Company, provided, however, that (i) no Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any such liability, loss, damage, cost or claim suffered or incurred by such Covered Person by reason of such person's Unprotected Acts and Omissions, and (ii) any indemnity under this Section 11.2 shall be provided out of, and to the extent of, Company assets only, and no Member shall have personal liability on account thereof.

11.3 To the fullest extent permitted by law, expenses ((including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding subject to this Section 11 shall be paid or reimbursed by the Company in advance of the final disposition of any proceeding and without any determination as to the Covered Person's ultimate entitlement to indemnification; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of a written affirmation by such person of his good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under this Section and a written undertaking, by or on behalf of such person, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified.

12. Registered Agent. The Secretary of State is designated as agent of the limited liability company upon whom process against it may be served. The address within or without this state to which the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of any process against the limited liability company served upon him or her is: c/o Brad Karp, Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison, LLP, 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019-6064.

13. Capital Contributions. The initial Members agree to contribute to the capital of the Company the cash or property described on Schedule A. In exchange for such contribution, each Member shall receive a Membership Interest in the Company in the percentage set forth on Schedule A. The Company shall maintain a separate Capital Account for each Member in accordance with Treasury Regulations promulgated from time to time under Section 704(b) of the Code.

14. Additional Contributions/Member Loans. No Member is required to make any additional capital contributions to the Company. A Member may extend credit to the Company with an affirmative vote of the Members. Member loans shall not constitute Capital Contributions.

15. Allocations.

15.1 Profits and Losses. The Company's profits and losses shall be allocated to the Members pro rata, in accordance with their Membership Interests. The allocations set forth in this section shall have economic effect equivalence within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(i) and, solely for tax purposes, be made in accordance with the Regulations promulgated under Code Section 704(c).

15.2 Use of Property.

15.2.1 If the Property is not being leased to a tenant, the Members and any one or more of any Member's Family Group may use the Property in an equitable fashion to be determined by the Members by a vote of a majority in interest of the Members.

15.2.2 Persons who are neither Members nor members of a Family Group of any Member may use the Property only upon the prior unanimous approval of the Members.

15.2.3 Nothing herein shall preclude any Member from inviting guests to stay at the Property while such Member or members of any Member's Family Group are using the Property in accordance with Section 15.2.1 above.

16. Distributions. Distributions shall be made to the Members at the times and in the aggregate amounts determined by the Members. Such distributions shall be allocated among the Members in the same proportion as their then positive capital account balances. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make a distribution to any Member on account of its interest in the Company if such distribution would violate the Act or other applicable law.

17. Sale of the Property. Any part or all of the Property may be sold upon the vote of the Members.

18. Assignment of Membership Interests.

18.1 A Member shall have the right to sell, assign, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise voluntarily transfer or encumber any portion or all of such Member's Membership Interest with the consent of a majority in interest of the Members other than the Member requesting such assignment, provided, however, that no such transfer may be made that would cause the Company to violate any rules, regulations, bylaw or other governing arrangements of any cooperative association or other legal person of which the Company is a shareholder or member, and any purported sale, assignment, mortgage, pledge or other transfer or encumbrance not in conformity with this Section 18.1 shall be null and void.

18.2 In addition, any interest as a Member that is held by a custodian for a minor under a Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or any similar act shall be fully transferable and assignable to the minor when the minor reaches the age of termination of such custodianship under the applicable statute. Any interest held by an entity may be fully transferable and assignable to the beneficial owners thereof.

18.3 Any assignee who receives a Membership Interest in accordance with this Section shall be admitted as a Member only upon his, her or its delivery to the Company of a written instrument by which he, she or it approves and adopts all of the provisions of this Agreement, as amended. Such admission shall be deemed effective immediately prior to the transfer, and, in the case of a transfer of all of a transferor Member's Interest in the Company, immediately following such admission, the transferor Member shall cease to be a Member of the Company. In the event of an assignment and admission of a transferee in accordance with this Section 18.3, the Company shall continue without dissolution.

19. Admission of Additional Members by the Company. One or more additional Members of the Company may be admitted to the Company with the consent of the Members and upon his, her or its delivery to the Company of a written instrument by which he, she or it approves and adopts all of the provisions of this Agreement, as amended.

20. Withdrawal of a Member. A Member may withdraw from the Company at any time.

21. Dissolution.

21.1 The Company shall dissolve and its affairs shall be wound up upon the first to occur of the following: (i) upon the unanimous vote of the Members; (ii) any time there are no Members of the Company unless the Company is continued in accordance with this Agreement and the Act; or (iii) as otherwise required in the Act.

21.2 Upon dissolution of the Company, the Members shall (i) wind up the affairs of the Company, (ii) pay all outstanding expenses, real property taxes and other debts and liabilities of the Company (including without limitation to any Member), (iii) establish any reserves against liabilities or obligations of the Company that the Members deem appropriate and (iv) distribute the remaining assets of the Company to the Members (a) in proportion to their positive capital accounts until such capital accounts reach zero and (b) thereafter in accordance with their respective Membership Interests.

22. Tax Matters. The Company shall designate a “tax matters partner” in accordance with Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code. In the event that the Company has more than one Member, it shall be treated as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. In the event that the Company has a single Member, it shall be treated as a sole proprietorship and a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes.

25. Separability of Provisions. Each provision of this Agreement shall be considered separable, and if for any reason any provision or provisions herein are determined to be invalid, unenforceable or illegal under any existing or future law, such invalidity, unenforceability or illegality shall not impair the operation of or affect those portions of this Agreement which are valid, enforceable and legal.

26. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by facsimile or electronic signature, each of which shall be deemed an original of this Agreement.

27. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior understandings or agreements between the parties with respect to such subject matter.

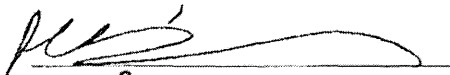

28. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed under, the laws of the State of New York (without regard to any otherwise applicable conflict of laws principles), all rights and remedies being governed by said laws.

29. Rule Against Perpetuities. If this Agreement or any covenants or provisions herein would otherwise be unlawful, void or voidable for violation of the Rule Against Perpetuities, then this Agreement, or such covenant or provision, as the case may be, shall terminate twenty-one (21) years after the death of the survivor of all of the descendants of King George V of England living on the date hereof.
